

WE HAVE RECEIVED SOME REPORTS OF GASTROENTERITIS IN YOUR AREA

What is Gastroenteritis?

It is an infection of the gut (intestines) which causes diarrhea, in some cases vomiting and abdominal pain. It is also commonly known as stomach flu.

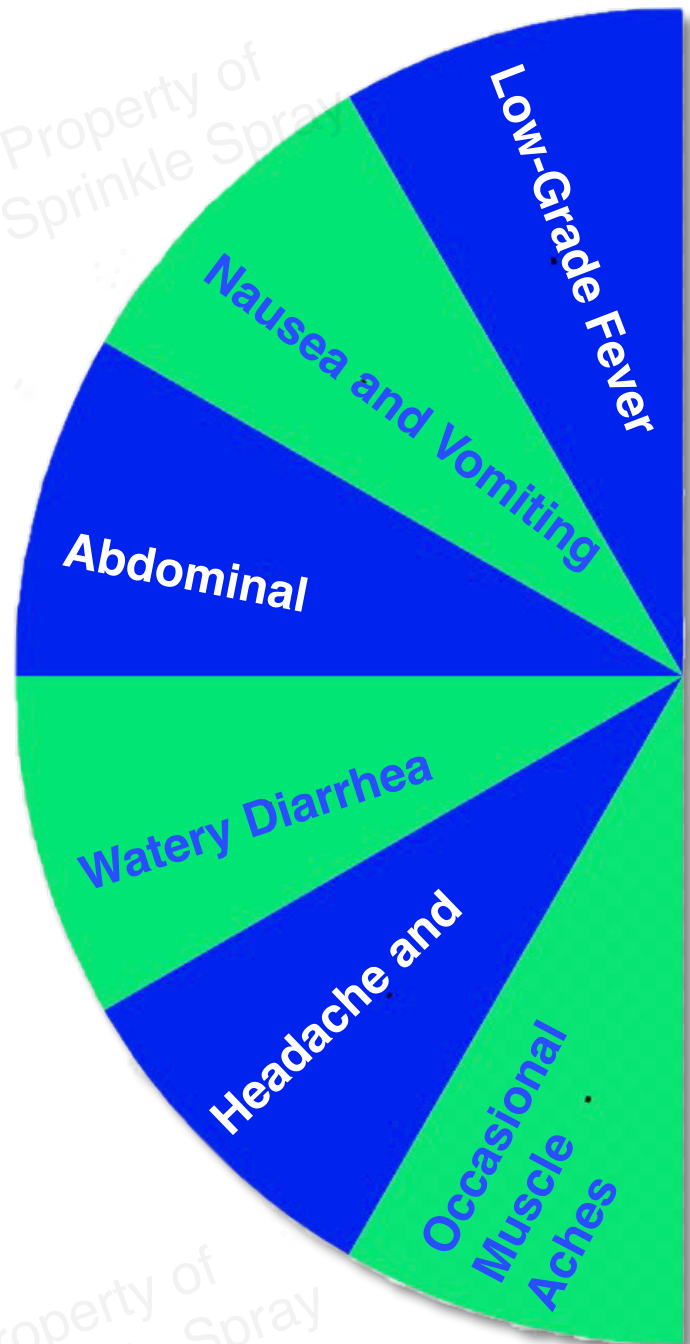

What are the most common causes of Gastroenteritis?

- * Norovirus
- * Rotavirus
- * Adenoviruses, Parvoviruses, Astroviruses

These viruses can stay on surface areas and objects for up to 2 weeks and still infect people

How does it spread?

- * Contact with infected persons
- * Contaminated food and water
- * Sharing food, water, eating utensils, toys, etc.
- * Touching surfaces contaminated by an infected person and then touching one's mouth
- * Fecal-to-Oral transmission

OUR SERVICE IS ALL-INCLUSIVE

*We service your facility once every 7 days, ensuring that your infection count is reset to zero every week. If you commit to a minimum 6 month contract, you will get access to our FREE emergency spray service which provides added protection in the event of a virus outbreak within 24 hours.